

All hail / From far Cthay/ Afar in eastern/ O brother monks

Edward. Cuthbert Nunn

John Henry Maunder (1858-1920)

Tenor solo legato

Bariton solo legato Balthasar

Bass solo legato

Organ1 mf legato

Organ3 mf legato

All hail, most no-ble stran-ger. Deign to share My shel-tered rest be-side this od, old well. May-be I may en - quire with-out of-

6

12

8

$\text{♩} = 104$

- fence Whence you are come and whi-ther you do go?

Gaspar

From far Cath-

17

8

- ay come I The One true God to find,

22

8

For those I've left be-hind

27

The know-ledge to sup-ply. My 32

sub-jects now at home Are sunk in black-est night For them I find the 37

Melchior

Light This jour-ney have I come.

A-

46

8
- far in east-ern Ind I hold my sove-reign sway. By fast-ing night and

53

8
day I tried the Truth to find. Till in the drean one night I

60

8
heard a voice di-vine Say-ing, "A-rise and shine, For now is come thy Light."

67

Balthasar

O bro-ther mon-archs, I To find the Light set store For 73

E-gypt and her lore Can ne-ver sa-tis-fy. From god to god they rove And ma-ny gods a - bound But yet they've ne-ver found The One true God of Love!

77