

Sleep little Son

William Catterton Dix (1837-1898)

John Henry Maunder (1858-1920)

Soprano solo mf legato

Soprano legato

Organ1 mp legato

Organ3 mp legato

J=88 J=56

Sleep lit - tle Son, O my 5

Trea - sure, my All,

Lul - lay, lit - tle sun, lul - lay

10

Day - light has fled and the night sha - dows fall

Lul -

Sha - dows are
- lay, lit-tle sun, lul - lay

fal - ling, and one falls on Thee, Shaped like a Cross, Like a Cross, can it be? Yet are the daw - ning all sha - dows must flee.

Lul - lay, lit - tle sun, lul - lay Lul-lay, lit-tle sun, lul - lay

 original b

36

Sleep lit - tle Son, though Thy 41

hou - sing be ill, Lul - lay, lit - tle sun, lul - lay

46

Here Thou art safe from the night winds so chill, Lul -

51

Though but a
- lay, lit - tle sun, lul - lay

Babe, to my breast Thou dost cling, Yet come to wor - ship Thee, shep - herd and king, Hum - ble and cost - ly the gifts that they bring.

Lul - lay, lit - tle sun, lul - lay, lul - lay lit - tle Son, lul - lay.

 original b*

 dotted quarter ciss in original*